Argentina	Not licensed	LMIE is an admitted reinsurer in Argentina The most important current limits to be respected are noted below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ From 1 July 2017 insurers may place 50% of annual ceded premiums with admitted reinsurers (the former limit was 10%), with further increases to 60% from 1 July 2018 and 75% from 1 July 2019.</li> <li>▪ Insurers can place facultatively the entirety of any individual risk of USD 35mn or more (formerly only the excess above USD 50mn) with admitted reinsurers, as they can all catastrophe contracts with the same minimum sum insured.</li> <li>▪ Insurers which accept up to 10% of their direct premiums as reinsurance must place their retrocessions with local reinsurers.</li> <li>▪ The SSN will investigate any retention per risk in excess of 15% and per accumulation of risks in excess of 25% of local reinsurers' capital.</li> <li>▪ Local reinsurers may transfer a maximum of 75% (formerly 40%) of their annual premiums to intra-group companies based overseas.</li> </ul> While no minimum retention of premiums is established by law for local insurers or reinsurers, the SSN has made it clear on various occasions to individual players that it will not allow 100% fronting, since this would be to act as an intermediary rather than a risk carrier. In practice it is understood retentions made on some risks may be of 1% or even less. Retentions for insurers are covered in Article 32 of both Law No 20.091 and the RGAA, which states that the SSN will review any retention in excess of 15% of capital and free reserves, or 40% of the surplus in the Statement of Cover for

		Commitments Due and Settled Claims Payable which companies must submit quarterly to the SSN. A withholding tax of 3.5% (equivalent to corporation tax of 35% on 10% presumptive income in accordance with the Income Tax Law) applies to reinsurance placed abroad. If a double taxation agreement exists with Argentina, a reduced withholding tax or no withholding tax may apply. VAT is payable on outwards reinsurance by the ceding company to the tax authorities and recovered from them the following month. No transfer of funds abroad is possible without the permission of the Central Bank, though formal approval is no longer required of the SSN to obtain that. There are not generally any delays sufficient to cause problems with reinsurers over cashflow and coverage. All treaty and facultative reinsurance contracts with Argentinian insurers are governed by Argentinian law and jurisdiction

According to the amendment, insurers can reinsure risks of property interests related to the object of insurance located or existing in the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan with local insurers or with foreign insurers in the extents, and meeting the requirements, set by the Central Bank. As of 31 July 2023, Liberty Mutual Insurance Europe SE does not have to be entered into 'the register of insurers, insurance intermediaries, foreign insurers and foreign insurance brokers, their representations in the Republic of Azerbaijan, actuaries, as well as entities engaging in ancillary insurance services and relevant independent experts' to be able to reinsure risks in Azerbaijan. As of 31 July 2023, the following is the regime applicable to Liberty Mutual Insurance Europe SE as a non-Azerbaijani insurer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- it may reinsure risks of property interests related to an object of insurance located or existing in the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>o in the extents to be determined by the Central Bank and</li> <li>o having met the requirements to be determined by the Central Bank</li> </ul> </li> </ul> In the situation where neither the extents nor the requirements have been approved by the Central Bank, Liberty Mutual Insurance Europe SE would be free to reinsure risks of property interests related to an object of insurance located or existing in the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan. This freedom is time limited

Sint Maarten (Dutch part)	The regulation of non-admitted or unlicensed insurance is similar across the Dutch Caribbean islands. Unauthorised insurers cannot carry on insurance activity in St Maarten nor may they market their services. At the same time, there is nothing in the law that indicates that insurance must be purchased from locally authorised insurers, with the exception of the compulsory classes. This is generally interpreted to mean that insurers can issue policies from abroad if approached by a buyer and/or an intermediary. The regulator of the relevant island would intervene only if the unlicensed insurer were actively soliciting business within its jurisdiction, for example, by advertising or establishing an office. Insurers involved in non-admitted placements for commercial insurance are tolerated. An island's supervisor would only intervene if the unlicensed insurer were actively soliciting business within its jurisdiction, for example by advertising or establishing an office. Insurers are not required to warn buyers that they are not subject to local supervision.	Treaty programmes have to be submitted annually for review by the regulator. Other than this there are no regulations which restrict local companies' freedom to reinsure at home or abroad - there are no compulsory cessions, maximum or minimum retention levels, withholding taxes, supervisory approval of reinsurance security or specific financial rating for reinsurers. Non-admitted The insurance supervisors do not put any constraints on the reinsurances placed by companies under their supervision but they do possess the right to question the use of any reinsurer should they so wish. If specific concerns are raised over a reinsurance arrangement, the supervisor may conduct an investigation and take action to ensure that the company puts in place an alternative arrangement. It is understood that insurers may take credit for accounting and solvency purposes in respect of reinsurance.

collateral requirements by the NAIC, under its Credit for Reinsurance Model Law.

LMIE as a non-admitted (re)insurer is not prohibited from writing reinsurance in the US however, in order to write it, collateral, equal to 100% of its gross estimated reinsurance liabilities and usually based on claims reserves, would have to be posted, either per risk or per programme.

Update 07/05/2024:

Liberty Mutual Insurance Europe SE (“LMIE”) based in Luxemburg, was first approved as a reciprocal reinsurer in Massachusetts on November 17, 2023 (its lead state) and was subsequently approved in Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, D.C., Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming. This allows LMIE to write reinsurance business in the United States without the requirement to post collateral, via a passporting arrangement and related applications with non-lead states.

LMIE’s status is not retroactive. All business incepted before the effective approval dates of each of its approved states will continue to require LMIE to post sufficient collateral and LMIE will maintain its proportionate share as required for cedants to take statutory credit for reinsurance. LMIE is required to continuously renew its reciprocal status with its selected jurisdictions each year in order to maintain its status as a reciprocal reinsurer. If a cedant is domiciled in a state where LMIE has not obtained approval as a reciprocal reinsurer, LMIE would be required to continue to post collateral or otherwise satisfy other means under applicable state law for the cedant to take statutory credit for reinsurance.

Note: Non-U.S. reinsurers based in a “Reciprocal Jurisdiction” which includes the E.U. (which is subject to an in-force Covered Agreement with the U.S.) are deemed appropriate jurisdictions for the National Association of Insurance Commissioners as well as all U.S. jurisdictions to accept for reciprocal reinsurer designation. Accordingly, reciprocal reinsurers are not required to prospectively post collateral for their reinsurance business in the U.S., subject to specific standards under applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to inclusion of certain contractual terms in the reinsurance contract.
